With “three strikes and you’re out” being my first and foremost. My love for baseball (and because I have an obsessive-compulsive issue with the number three) led me to take that one rule to heart and put it to use in every aspect of my life, from then, all the way up until now. And I guarantee that it will be my number one rule forever.

Make that three “red days” in a row for the market. But is it a case of “three strikes” and you’re out? No. Not even close. And whilst it’s been more than a month since the major averages have dropped for three straight days – I would pay more attention if we see three (large) bearish weeks in a row.. Day to day markets are all over the place.
